Chambers. Honolulu Nov. 26. '91 -

Juan v. Ahjona.²
Malicious Injury.

On appeal from Dist. Jus
Honolulu. Koro for clks.

Defendant ready for trial.

Pros. calls.

W. E. H. Denial sworn. One deft. Juan. I am know deft
I my name was kept in Wilson's room in your last. Makaimoku had charge of the place Heard through him that she was hurt.

Next day heard through my bro. Alfred that she was dead. She had a cut about 2 weeks old. I bought her at Dec. 2. 1891.

I was quite small at the time of her death.
was small. 10 yrs old. very poor & weak when I bought her.

X.

Makaimoku told me that her legs were hurt by her being beaten. my bro. also said he saw the marks of beating.

Makaimoku sworn. Saw deft. beat the man with a thick stick, on the hind legs. in this yard. he struck her 5 times. It was before 9 am. before school on Monday morning. I blow on back & on hind legs.
3 of us saw the beating.

Kalo. sworn. Saw deft. strike the old man in his enclosure 5 times. (thru) on the hind legs & two on the rump - It was before school time in the morning.

Struck her with a piece of something but not with his full force. 3 of us saw this ^{we} under a big mango tree. He was very near. (30 feet?)
It was on a Monday that Deft struck her.
Wid. Mary saw the ~~dead~~ man, she was dead. The man was poor. —

Kupine. same. Like the last.

Karfiia. same. Cons. I saw the man on Tuesday
she was all right not hurt. The next day I saw her dead. — 4 was about a hundred feet away I went all around her. I was sent there by the judge to get his horse. There were more than 10 horses in the paddock. —

As I was catching the quail near the man
I went with him the horn of Gumbo. The book saw. He said the ^{dead} man on them. I did not see any marks on her legs. —

She was neither fleshy nor lean. —

Deft was acquitted.
